

WYBC AND WCNI

In January of 1968 WYBC completed an agreement with WCNI, Conn. College radio; The object of this agreement was for WYBC to expand its listening audience by servicing the young ladies of Conn. since the only commercial station they could get featured country and western music. It was also seen as a possible opportunity to increase revenue through expanded advertising. In return for the cooperation we were to receive from WCNI we agreed to improve the quality of broadcasts originating from WCNI, quality of content and quality of signal.

WCNI appropriated $1,000 for eight new transmitters which we were to have built by WLYU and which we were to install. This brings the number of small transmitters spread out strategically on their campus to eleven with one in reserve and gives WCNI 100% coverage of the Conn. campus.

Since at the conception of our agreement WCNI was inoperative for all practical purposes, we planned to send them all of our 640 programming the amount of which would be reduced as they organized their own broadcast schedule. We will send them our signal over a telephone line rented from AT&T at the cost of approximately $300/month. To pay for this the following agreement was reached. All advertising sold in New London was to be split in the following manner. The first 25% was to go to the salesman. After that the entire amount was to go towards paying the line charges. Any money left over was to be split 50% to WYBC and 50% to WCNI.
